Chapter 1 by Worlds

I woke up with my vision all blurry. I tried to stand up but hit my head on a metal lid. I looked around and saw that I was in a cage on top of another cage with someone sleeping inside. I was in a room where there were kids held captive, on my side there were normal kids and the other side is looked different. In the middle, there were two cages with a single candle in between them. (That candle was our only source of light in here.) One of them had black eyes and red pupils with bat-like wings on her back, she almost looked like a devil except when you see the sad look on her face. The other had a halo above his head and white dove wings. He also had a sad look on his face.

A metal door opened and I saw someone heading towards my side. But, he wasn't in the cage like the others.

"Well, well, well. Look who is finally awake," the guy said with a devious look in his eyes and that creepy smile. He should have taken those girl's eyes and wings when he had the chance.

"What is going on?" I spat at him.

"Don't you want to know my name first?" he asked me acting offended, "Well if you wanted to know, it's Vam Pire, not a joke."

"It is where we try to make new things from the old." he replied.

"You meant making monsters." I yelled, "Look at what you have done!"

I pointed to all of the peoples and monsters around us. Everyone was looking at us.

"Tsk, tsk, tsk, you're just hurting the feelings. We aren't making monsters. We are doing what they want." he said calmly, "They are the ones who wanted this, we just make their dreams come true."

I stared at him with shock. I'm pretty sure that these kids wouldn't want to be monsters. I looked around to see almost everyone's head turned away from us.

His watch beeped and blinked red.

"I am sorry, but I have to go. Someone is trying to escape, again." the guy sighed, "Goodbye, Violet. I hope we can meet again."

Then, he walked away from me, towards the two cages in the middle. The metal door shut behind him.

"Wait, how do you know my name!" I shouted as loud as I could.
